PROJECTS

cuisine Web ↗
Aug 2025
The Cuisine Web project is a responsive, front-end website that showcases diverse cuisines from around the world, built with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. The homepage features a bold hero section and a grid of cuisine cards (e.g., Italian, Indian, Japanese, Mexican, Mediterranean), each with an image, short intro, and quick actions. Users can search, filter by region.

Netflix UI ↗
Jul 2025
The Netflix User Interface (UI) is designed to provide an engaging and seamless streaming experience with a focus on simplicity, visual appeal, and personalization. Its primary goal is to allow users to browse and watch content effortlessly across devices such as desktops, tablets, TVs.

SalesForce ↗
Mar 2025
The Salesforce Website (HTML & CSS) project is a responsive marketing site that mirrors the look and feel of Salesforce's homepage while being built from scratch with semantic HTML and modern CSS (Flexbox/Grid).
